Behind this once castle wall stands our noble Knights, bold and tall.

We built them out of honor and pride, for we knew our Knights would never die.

*We took our triumphs with noble dignity.
We worked on our faults until they became victories.*

Now we can look back without wondering why.

Now we have no reason to shed a tear and cry.

*We took the good and we took the bad.
We made the most of what we had.*

We tried to do more than just survive,

for we always knew "THE HILLS WERE ALIVE."

We owe our friends and teachers too.

But most of all, Mom and Dad, we owe you.

Even though we'll all go our separate ways, we'll always remember our golden Morris Hills days.

THUNDER ROAD

The screen door slams Mary's dress waves
Like a vision she dances across the porch
As the radio plays
Roy Orbison singing for the lonely Hey that's me and I want you only Don't turn me home again
I just can't face myself alone again
Don't run back inside Darling you know just what I'm here for So you're scared and you're thinking That maybe we ain't that young anymore Show a little faith, there's magic in the night
You ain't a beauty, but hey you're alright Oh and that's alright with me

You can hide 'neath your covers And study your pain
Make crosses from your lovers Throw roses in the rain Waste your summer praying in vain
For a saviour to rise from these streets
Well now I'm no hero That's understood temptation I can offer, girl is dirty hood to make it good somehow can we do now?

the window blow rusting open will take us anywhere chance to make it real the wings on some wheels

ing on down the tracks take my hand tonight to case the promised land Thunder Road, oh Thunder Road
Thunder Road

there like a killer in the sun now it's late we can make it if we run Thunder Road, sit tight take hold
Thunder Road

Well I got this guitar
And I learned how to make it talk And my car's out back
If you're ready to take that long walk
From your front porch to my front seat
The door's open but the ride it ain't free
And I know you're lonely For words that I ain't spoken
But tonight we'll be free
All the promises'll be broken
There were ghosts in the eyes
Of all the boys you sent away
They haunt this dusty beach road
In the skeleton frames of burned out Chevrolet They scream your name at night in the street
Your graduation gown lies in rags at their feet
And in the lonely cool before dawn You hear their engines roaring on But when you get to the porch they're gone On the wind, so Mary climb in It's a town full of losers
And I'm pulling out of here to win

FALL PEP RALLY

In the spirit of tradition, the pep rally begins with the playing of the band and the marching of the colorguard.

Our "Lady Knight", Beth Johnson, makes a symbolic appearance in the Scarlet Knight coat of arms.

The J.V. cheerleaders are always in perfect formation.

Both Juniors and Sophomores join in the excitement of the day.

Our energetic football players can never get too "carried away" in the excitement.

Jill Devin — Editor in Chief

Miss Lynne Kurebanas — Advisor

My Fellow Classmates:

It has been my pleasure to have been the editor of the Torch for two years. Much hard work and many hours have been devoted to the preparation of the 1986 Torch. I would like to thank all of the contributing editors who gave their time and effort and Miss Kurebanas for her tolerance and understanding.

Sincerely,

Jill Devin

GRADUATION

*At graduation, we walked with pride.
Our fears of the future we tried to hid.
Now the time has come, but we're not going to cry,
We said to ourselves while wiping our eyes.*

*"Pomp and Circumstance" played in our minds.
We looked at the audience, a familiar face to find.
We sat and listened to speeches from our friends.
This is our last day. Why must it end?*

*Waiting to hear them call our names,
Up until now it all seemed like a game.*

*Then we heard our names at last,
But our minds just lingered on memories of the past.*

All the things that meant so much, Wondering if we'll all keep in touch.

*We all think now it's over and done,
But in reality, a new life has begun.*

*We walked off Gifford Field leaving a piece of our hearts, Knowing this is where we all must depart.
We have all the memories filled in our minds —
The good times, the bad times, while the clock still chimes.
We took all the chances with a few little sighs.
There were the good times that we laughed,
And sometimes we cried.
But what hurts most of all is we must say good-bye.
We knew we didn't want to leave deep down inside.*

*We said good-luck to the underclassmen And told them the rules they must abide.
Then, we walked hesitently off Gifford Field
All friends — side by side . . .*
